

Daily

The Spokesman

RAWALPINDI

A Leading National Daily

فرمان رسول ﷺ

امام زادہ سرادھ نے کہا کہ ہم سے اہل
بنی اویس نے یہاں کیا کہہا کہ ہم سے اہل
مالک نے یہاں کیا ان سے تاج نے اور ان سے
عبد اللہ رضی اللہ عنہ نے کہ رسول اللہ صلی
اللہ علیہ وسلم نے فرمایا جب تین آدمی ساتھ
ہوں تو تیسرے میں سے کوئی ایک کو روک دے اور اس میں
کھانا پانی (سرموٹی) نہ کریں۔
(بخاری، حدیث نمبر 6288)

Barkat Rice Mills
(Pvt) Limited

PM Shehbaz to visit Germany early next month

Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif will visit Germany in the first week of April to attend a conference. The prime minister's visit to Germany is expected from April 1 to 3, the sources said and added, Shehbaz Sharif will attend a conference about disabilities.

Haji flights from Pakistan likely to begin on May 1

The schedule for Pakistan's Haji flights has been finalised, with the first departure set for May 1, 2025, according to sources in the Ministry of Religious Affairs. The official flight schedule is expected to be released by April 10.

Simultaneously published from Islamabad, Lahore and Multan

Ramazan-ul-Mubarak 24, Tuesday, March 25, 2025

www.dailyspokesman.net

@daily_spokesman

Daily Spokesman Vol: 18, Issue: 344

Price Rs. 25.00 Pages 8

Spirit of Pakistan: A Tribute to the Nation's Journey of Freedom and Sovereignty

Pakistan, a nation born out of the struggles for independence and sovereignty carries with it a spirit that resonates through its rich history. The journey of Pakistan from the days of the independence movement to becoming a sovereign state is a testament to the resilience, determination, and sacrifice of its people. A dream to a reality was paved with sacrifices, determination, and a deep-rooted desire for self-determination. Historical struggles that shaped Pakistan as a nation, explore the key events in its fight for independence, and shed light on how these experiences have influenced the spirit and identity of the Pakistani people. The spirit of Pakistan, paying tribute to the nation's remarkable journey of freedom and sovereignty.

The spirit of Pakistan is deeply rooted in the struggle for independence from British colonial rule. The All India Muslim League, led by visionary leaders like Muhammad Ali Jinnah, played a pivotal role in advocating for a separate homeland for the Muslims of the Indian subcontinent. The Lahore Resolution of 1940, also known as the Pakistan Resolution, marked a significant milestone in the demand for a separate Muslim state. The nation was finally born on August 14, 1947, as Pakistan gained independence amid immense challenges and hardships.

All-India Muslim League, under Jinnah's leadership, spearheaded the demand for a separate nation for Muslims, highlighting the cultural, religious, and social differences that warranted a separate identity. The Lahore Resolution of 1940, which called for the creation of independent states in Muslim-ma-majority regions, set the stage for the eventual partition of India and the birth of Pakistan. The journey of Pakistan towards sovereignty is marked by numerous challenges, including economic hardships, political instability, and external threats. The country faced periods of military rule, internal strife, and conflicts with its neighbors. However, the spirit of Pakistan endured through these turbulent times, as the nation continued to strive for progress, development, and stability.

On August 14, 1947, Pakistan emerged as an independent nation, but the journey towards sovereignty was far from over, the partition of India led to one of the largest mass migrations in history, with millions of people displaced and thousands losing their lives in communal violence. The newly formed nation faced numerous challenges, including economic instability, political uncertainty, and the integration of diverse ethnic and linguistic groups into a cohesive national identity. Over the years, Pakistan has made significant strides in various fields, including education, healthcare, science, and technology, heritage, vibrant arts scene, and rich literary traditions reflect the resilience and creativity of its people. Despite facing criticism and negative stereotypes internationally, Pakistan has consistently demonstrated its potential for growth and success.

Despite these challenges, Pakistan forged ahead with a spirit of resilience and determination. The country became a member of the United Nations in 1947 and played a significant role in global affairs, particularly in the Islamic world. Pakistan's participation in various international forums, its contributions to peacekeeping missions, and its advocacy for the rights of developing nations reflected its commitment to upholding sovereignty and independence.

Today, Pakistan stands as a proud and sovereign nation, upholding its independence and territorial integrity. The spirit of Pakistan continues to inspire its citizens to work towards a better future, free from poverty, extremism, and corruption. The nation's commitment to democracy, human rights, and social justice reflects the values on which it has found. The spirit of resilience, unity, and faith that guided the founding fathers of Pakistan remains a source of inspiration for generations. The legacy of the Pakistan Movement serves as a reminder of the sacrifices made and the values cherished by the Pakistani nation.

Pakistan's journey from a dream to a reality reflects the indelible spirit of a nation born out of struggles for independence and sovereignty. The spirit of self-determination, resilience and unity that resonates through Pakistan's rich history continues to inspire its people to uphold the ideals of independence and sovereignty.

As Pakistan moves forward, it carries with it the legacy of its founders and the spirit that defines its national character. Pakistan, born out of the struggles for freedom and sovereignty, remains a powerful force that shapes the nation's identity and aspirations. The journey of Pakistan from independence to the present day is a testament to the resilience, courage, and unity of its people. As Pakistan continues to face challenges and opportunities in the 21st century, the spirit of the nation will undoubtedly guide its path towards a brighter and more prosperous future.

Writer is Post-Doctorate (Peace Education) in International Islamic University, Islamabad

Analysis

Dr. Muhammad Shahzad Ashfaq